

Contact that skilled therapist in your area:

ICMA<sup>2</sup>C International Center for Molested and Abducted
Children

www.timetotalkaboutit.org

Enough = Enough

Boy, girl, man, woman, young, elderly... you were in a situation once where you couldn't stand up for yourself. Actions were taken with and against you that hurt you to the depths of your being. You couldn't talk to anyone about it, who was going to believe you?

This period in your life has marked you, made you no longer your true Self.

- Do you sometimes feel lonely? Different from others?
- Are you sometimes scared or anxious and you don't know why?
- Do you sometimes feel that no one is taking you serious?
- Are you sometimes unable to develop your true talents?
- Do you sometimes act aggressively, burst out into a rage without knowing why?
- Do you sometimes feel ashamed?
- Do you often have the feeling you are carrying all the burdens of the world on your shoulders?

Recognizable?

Then this is your moment to take your life and your world back!

Time To Talk About It!

Time for change.

The time has finally come to talk about very difficult matters. ICMA<sup>2</sup>C, International Center for Molested and Abducted Children, works worldwide with professionally formed and trained people in this difficult area.

We listen to your story and see how we can put together a process tailored to your needs. We will look step by step where you got stuck and repair the damage caused.

Whether you have been a victim of sexual abuse, physical, psychological or emotional abuse or kidnapping, it makes no difference to our people. There is an appropriate therapy for every situation, which can be adjusted at every step, depending on your needs and wishes.

Do not hesitate any longer and choose your story, your happiness, choose to Live!

Happy individuals make a happy society.

I'LL NEVER be the Victim again